Therapy Skincare celebrated its 10th birthday recently after a decade of success that has seen it move to bigger premises and hire 11 members of staff.

The beauty salon, based on Rawson Street in Halifax, marked the anniversary with a special party featuring a cake, champagne, cupcakes and sweets.

The shop also ordered 100 bright-pink helium balloons with their logo on, attached a complementary £5 gift voucher and handed them out to passers-by.

A beauty raffle offering a £50 gift voucher, HD Brow and Dermalogica products was held and raised more than £110 for local homeless people.

The salon was started by Louise Jones back in 2004 but now employs 11 staff.

The business moved to bigger premises five years ago before moving again two years later where they now have five beauty rooms, a spray tan room and nail bar area.

The company specialises in colonic hydrotherapy and shrinking violet body wraps along with other treatments.

Each year the salon takes on another apprentice and continues to go on training courses.

Owner Louise Jones said: "Training is key to any business and we always attend at least two beauty trade shows each year to see what new treatments are launching.

sionate about what they do and it really shows by winning numerous awards. I'm extremely proud of all my staff and I'd like to thank all my clients for their continued support throughout our 10 years in business.

"We appreciate each and every one of you and most of you have become not only our clients but our friends too."

Halifax-based Caravan Guard is celebrating having reached 80,000 customers during October.

In July the company, founded in 1995 and based on New Road, was named a finalist in two categories at the prestigious British Insurance Awards.

Earlier this month it was again announced as a finalist in three categories at the star-studded UK Broker Awards.

Managing director, Ryan Wilby, said: "Reaching 80,000 customers is an absolutely phenomenal achievement and one we are very proud of.

"Our philosophy has always been to look after our people and deliver brilliant customer experiences.

"It is this relentless focus on the customer that has driven such fantastic growth and led us to employ over 100 staff."

Vinny wins Dulux prize

A painter and decorator from Halifax is the lucky winner of £2,000 worth of products thanks to a promotion by Dulux Decorator Centre.

More than 11,000 painters and decorators across the UK took part in the competition, but Vinny Davidson walked away with a selection of professional products from the Dulux Decorator Centre on Pellon Lane.

Vinny entered Dulux Decorator Centre's Win a Van competition, but after being unsuccessful in his attempt to drive away with the Ford Connect 240 van, he was entered into a prize draw for Halifax.

There were 11 other winners, each receiving £2,000 worth of products after being unsuccessful in their attempts to win the van.

Vinny commented: "I was in disbelief when the store told me I'd won; you never expect your name to be pulled out of 11,000!

"Winning these products is a massive amount of support and means I can continue carrying out my work to the best standard possible."

Beverly Whitehead, marketing manager at Dulux, said: "Building relationships with painters and decorators is very important to us, and this promotion is our way of rewarding and supporting customers by giving them that bit extra."
